Heavenly Bells has achieved a ten-year milestone this month. They began as a novice group, under the encouragement of Pastor Jeff Paulson, and supported by this congregation through financial gifts and kind words of encouragement. Many ringers began with no music background but, through their dedication and hard work, have become a viable part of the music program at EUMC. Eleven of the original group are still ringing today! New ringers are always welcome to join.

Congratulations to our dedicated
Bell Ringers, past and present!

The UMW Tea is next Sunday from 2 to 4 p.m. Remaining tickets are on sale in the hall today after the service. The ladies of the church are reminded that all of you are United Methodist Women; all of you are welcome; all of you will find friends at every table!

The EUMC Yard Sale is set for June 6th from 8:00 a.m. to noon. That means it's time for you to start saving your gently used items. We'll let you know when they can be brought to church – look for a detailed article in the May newsletter. Please remember, we cannot take any electronics, textbooks, or clothing.

If you'd like to host or help with a Sunday coffee hour, put your name on the list on the bulletin board near the coffee pot.
