Please put GreenScape on your calendars! From 9 a.m. to noon on Saturday, April 20th, we will spread mulch, plant bulbs, trim and clean up the flower beds. Many hands are needed to get everything done. Bring the kids – they love to help dig in the dirt. Bring your gloves and favorite gardening tools. There's lots to do!

Wednesday Afternoon Arts Enrichment at EUMC begins April 17, 4 to 5:30 p.m. This program is for our congregation and homework children between 5 and 13 years who would like to learn art, music, and creative writing and have loads of fun in the process. It is sponsored and operated by Rob Levit and Creating Communities, a small non-profit arts service organization in Annapolis, Maryland. Check them out at www.creatingcommunities.net. Mike Keller and Joyce Conley have more information.

Game Night has ended until next fall. We have enjoyed these times of fellowship so much, and thank those who have made them possible by getting the pizza and refreshments for our enjoyment (in addition to setting up and cleaning up). We hope you will put Game Night into your planning for the fall – second Saturday of the month, 5:30 until about 7:30. Good times!

Silent Auction. We're recruiting people to help with this part of the Peach Festival. A lot of work goes on behind the scenes for the silent auction, not just supervising the tables that day. Two people have volunteered to be on this team but we need at least two more if we are to feature the silent auction again this year. Please contact Wendy Edstrom or the church office if you are willing to help. Thanks!

SPOTLIGHT BEHIND THE SCENES

We are especially grateful to God's faithful servant, our brother Kevin Hight, for providing the projection each week, putting up with last minute instructions and strange requests from the office, and pretty much always getting it right. Thanks Kevin!!
