If you will notice, there are a few members in our list of Prayer Concerns who have been on the Visitation Team. These people have visited the sick and the homebound for many years. Now they are in need of visits, and the Visitation Team is in need of a two-person team to take over these duties (actually, a privilege). We have about four teams (now three) in place, and these teams visit our homebound on a rotating basis. If you are interested in this important ministry to our members, please call the church.

The Board of Trustees and the Administrative Council will meet Tuesday evening, January 21. All team leaders and/or co-leaders are urged to attend. Written team reports are due in to the office by Jan. 14th. These need be just a short report on what your team is doing and/or has done since the November report. Trustees meet at 6:15pm and Admin. Council meets at 7:30. Both meet downstairs in the Conference Room. Please read the minutes from the November Council meeting that will be in your e-mail this week. Thanks.

SPOTLIGHT BEHIND THE SCENES

Thank you to those who removed and packed away all the Christmas decorations for another year. It isn't nearly as fun as the decorating, and we thank you.
