The Transfiguration by Raphael, c. 1520

Unusual for a depiction of the Transfiguration of Jesus in Christian art, Raphael's painting depicts two consecutive, but distinct, biblical narratives from the Gospel of Matthew. Raphael joins the two scenes together as his final testament to the healing power of the transfigured Christ.

*Lord, make me an instrument of your peace,
Where there is hatred, let me sow love;
Where there is injury, pardon;
Where there is doubt, faith;
Where there is despair, hope;
Where there is darkness, light;
Where there is sadness, joy . . . .*

From the Prayer of St. Francis

Your Love Has Led Us Here

Your love has led me here;
My life the gift I bring; O purify me, Lord, I pray,
and teach my heart to sing.

Your love has led me here;
I come with joy today to celebrate Your saving love
That washed my sins away.

O love has led me here;
To cleanse and make me new.
Savior, come into my life; I give my heart to You.

Your love has led me here;
I come with joy today to celebrate Your saving love
That washed my sins away.

Your love, Your love has led me here;
Your love, Your love has led me here;
I thank You, dear Lord, for Your wondrous, gracious love;
Your love has led me here;

Your love has led me here;
Made clear the path to take.
O Jesus I will follow You; this is the choice I make.

Your love has led me here;
I come with joy today to celebrate Your saving love
That washed my sins away.
Your love has led me here;
Your love has led me here.
